

Town of Summerfield
Resolution to Continue Operation until Adoption of Town Budget August 5, 1997

R-1997-007

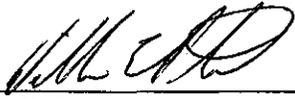

WHEREAS; through inadvertance or otherwise there appears no confirmative that notice and advertisement for Budget Public Hearing and adoption was placed in a newspaper of General Circulation, and

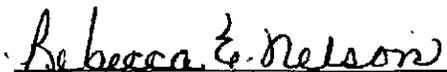

WHEREAS; the existing budget for Town operations expired June 30, 1997, and

WHEREAS; the law requires that Budget adoption shall be only after due notice of Public Hearing before action by Town Council, and

WHEREAS; by this continuing Resolution for continued Town of Summerfield conducting of its business, the Town Council intends to continue all business matters and pay all its obligations, and

NOW THEREFORE; by action of the Town Council of Summerfield hereby adopts this resolution of continuing the conduct of its business and adopts an interim Budget of $8200.00, until the Public Hearing and adoption of its annual Budget on August 5, 1997.
