Wray made a motion to approve the Finance Officer contract. The motion was seconded by Williams and carried unanimously.

BUSINESS FROM THE MAYOR (CEREMONIAL)

Retire Outgoing Council: Brown read a plaque commemorating Williams' service to the town, and expressed his appreciation.

Seat New Council: Oath of Office

The Honorable Lawrence McSwain, District Court Judge, administered the Oath of Office to Mayor-elect Mark Brown and Council-elect Dena Barnes, Alicia Flowers, and Elizabeth McClellan. McSwain discussed the importance of the oath, noting there was a duty to self, supporters, opponents, and to all town citizens. He said there is no way to please all of the people, but each should strive to do his or her best. McSwain, Brown, Barnes, Flowers, and McClellan then signed the oaths with the signatures conferring all duties and responsibilities that come with council membership.

Recess from 6:55pm to 7:25 pm

Laughlin arrived at 7:00 pm

ELECTION OF MAYOR PRO TEM

Responding to Wendelken's earlier comments, Brown stated that in the past both the Mayor and Mayor Pro Tem were selected based on number of votes received, but that had not been the practice in some time. Wray stated that the Mayor Pro Tem position was a very important one for an experienced person.

Wray made a motion nominating Barnes as Mayor Pro Tem. The motion was seconded by Laughlin.

Flowers welcomed McClellan to Council and stated she was qualified and had much education and experience as an HOA president, also noting that there is a tradition as stated by Wendelken. She further stated during one election Wray received the highest number of votes, but recommended Barnes as Mayor Pro as she was doing a good job at it. Flowers feels McClellan should have the opportunity.

Flowers mad a counter motion nominating McClellan as Mayor Pro Tem. The motion was seconded by McClellan.

Laughlin does not doubt that McClellan would do a good job, but noted she had not seen McClellan at Town Council meetings until shortly before the election and is concerned that she may not be familiar with issues. McClellan stated she would be happy to accept the nomination if Council had as much confidence in her that the voters did, noting that everyone has to start somewhere. Barnes stated in 1997 she received the highest number of votes, but was not appointed as Mayor Pro Tem; then Mayor Bill Peterson stated this was because she had never served before and was not experienced in Summerfield government. Brown called for a vote.

As to the nomination of McClellan as Mayor Pro Tem, the motion failed 2 to 3 (Banes, Laughlin, and Wray opposed).

As to the nomination of Barnes as Mayor Pro Tem, the motion passed 3 to 2 (Flowers and McClellan opposed).

PRESENTATION OF AUDIT REPORT – Rex Rouse of Rouse, Rouse, Penn & Rouse

Rouse presented the report, making particular note of the following: an increase in cash and investments from 7,524,869 in 2010 to 7,602,191 in 2011; an increase in total assets from 7,674,054 to 7,726,384; a decrease in liabilities from 354,798 to 81,821; an increase in total fund balance from 7,319,256 to 7,726,384. Rouse further noted Summerfield was in an enviable financial situation, with investment earnings and expenses. Rouse stated that the town does an excellent job of mitigating weaknesses in internal controls by outsourcing the bookkeeping, having independent and multiple reviewers and check signers, and an independent finance committee.
